Being a digital leader at Sabden Primary School

EYFS	Year 1	Year 2	Year 3 and 4	Year 5 and 6
I can use a computer to explore simple educational games and activities. I can use a mouse or touchpad to click on objects on the screen. I can follow simple instructions on the computer with adult support. I can identify and use basic computer parts like the monitor, keyboard, and mouse.	I can navigate and explore age-appropriate educational software or websites. I can use a keyboard to type simple words and sentences. I can create and save simple digital artwork using basic drawing tools. I can identify and sort different types of digital media, such as images and sounds.	I can use a word processor to create and edit simple documents. I can use digital cameras or tablets to capture and edit images. I can use simple programming tools to create basic sequences of commands. I can recognise and discuss online safety rules and understand the importance of personal information protection.	I can use presentation software to create and deliver simple slideshows. I can use search engines to find and retrieve information from the internet. I can use block-based programming languages to create interactive stories or animations. I can explain the concept of algorithms and create step-by-step instructions to solve simple problems. I can use spreadsheets to organize and analyse data. I can collaborate with others using online communication tools and shared documents. I can write simple HTML code to create a basic web page. I can discuss the importance of responsible internet use and identify ways to stay safe online.	I can use digital tools to collect and present data in a variety of formats. I can use block-based or text-based programming languages to create more complex programs. I can understand and apply logical reasoning when solving coding problems. I can identify and evaluate the reliability of online sources and understand issues of online privacy. I can use advanced word processing tools to create and format documents. I can create and publish content on a blog or website using content management systems. I can design and develop simple databases to store and retrieve information. I can understand and explain how computer networks and the internet work, including concepts such as IP addresses and domain names.